This is stated plainly by groups which the Communists can hardly condemn as "fascist," reactionary" or "imperialist," their standard terms for people who don't agree with them.

The trail of the ideologies in New York follows the street guide, by an odd coincidence, and the farther downtown the head-quarters, the more radical the program.

The Socialist Workers Party—the Trotzkyites—are farthest downtown in a red brick, three-story walkup at 116 University Place. The Communists come next with their green-fronted head-quarters at 55 E. 12th st. The Social Democratic Federation shares the brownstone "People's House" on 15th st. The Socialist Party is comfortably ensconced farthest uptown at 303 Fourth ave.

Below the Trotzkyites are only the anarchists and nihilists, who have neither organization nor headquarters, but who reputedly go about in solitary wrath, muttering into their beards.

JILLIAM J. CANNON, national secretary of the Socialist Workers Party, explains that it was the decision to become a mere tool of Soviet Union foreign policy that led the Trotzkyites to quit the Communist Party in 1929

"The leaders of the Communist Party are only Stalin's office boys." Cannon says. "They use the international working class as pawns in dealing with the imperialists."

The arrival of the attack in New York caused an unprecedented furor among the rank and file of the Communists, until then unaware of the Foster letter. unaware of the Foster letter.

Browder's first decision was to sit on the Duclos attack, awaiting more direct word on the change in policy. But its publication by the New York World Telegram, whose blond, chunky Fred Woltman is a nemesis of the Communists, forced his hand.

At that point, Browder threw in the spone. He printed the Duclos attack in the Daily Worker, of which he was editor, together with an apologetic foreword in which he admitted that the time for a change in policy had come.

Then he called a meeting of the national board to acquaint them with his decision. That was his second unpleasant surprise.

"I would have liked to be there," one Communist member, a silm stenographer in a black sweater and skirt, told me. Browder walked into the meeting with his brief case under his arm. He was ready to tell the party leaders that the time for a new change in line had come.

The party leaders who have three times rebuffed Browder and r nounced him in a bizarre series of "confessions," have set the style for the party underlings.

ERIDING Browder and attending the movies are the two favorite diversions of the Communists at the present moment. And since the headline attractions in their neighborhood theaters are "Stalin Addresses the U. S. S. R.," "The Red Army Recovers the Ukraine" and a double bill of the French and Russian revolutions in the respective tongues, their time is divided.

More interesting to the idle bystander is the trail leading directly back to Moscow and the Comintern, reputedly dissolved in May, 1944.

Foster apparently was the chosen new czar of the American Communists as far back as January, 1945, for it was then he prepared the trap for Browder in a document so secret that not even the party membership in New York was aware of it.

Some of the rank and file of the party are still pretty angry; at how thoroughly they were shut out of the inner dealing of the party. But, being Communists, and disciplined, they take it out; in grumbling. A heavy-set, swarthy fur worker, whom I met in a lower Broad-

"Foster knew for six months that Browder was to go out," he said with a heavy accent. "But for six months the party members know nothing. They go blindly along until it is time for the big blow-off."

Since he was following Soviet Union policy, even to the extent of offering to shake hands with J. A Morgan and gently chiding Vice President Wallace for an attack on Wall Street, Browder ex- 12-45 pected to survive any future changes in the party line.

But in January, 1945, as President Roosevelt took office for such phila languages his fourth term and the last German offensive collapsed in Belgium, Browder called a routine meeting of the Communist national board in New York.

Foster stunned that meeting by submitting a long letter criti-

The debate that followed was long and bitter. It ended with the bound reference of the classic suarded archives of the

THE tall, narrow green building that houses national headquarters of the Communist Party at 35 E. 12th st., New York City, isn't pretentious, nor is its steel-doored second exit to 50 E. 13th st. unusually suspicious.

But it forms the center of the giant web the Communists hope to weave about the United States with a brand new leader in he role of the spider.

William Z. Foster, who has taken Earl Browder's place at the long mahogany desk in the green-and-yellow paneled office on the second floor, is now busy gathering up the threads his aides are weaving in the colleges, veterans' organization, unions and political ranks.

Now 64 years old, the balding, portly, but square-jawed Foster is one of the real veterans of the Communist movement in the United States, finally come to the post of command to which he has aspired or a quarter-century.

T COMMUNIST headquarters. A they will tell you that "Mr. Pos-ter doesn't give interviews." They fail to add, as they very well could, "without a court order."

For on the occasions when the present leader of the American Communists has talked for the record, it has been very interesting indeed.

It was in 1928, in accepting the Communist Party nomination for the presidency, that Foster said: "We must build a Soviet government in the United States. It will come and behind it will stand a Red Army. In the same address, he warned of the dangers of an imperialistic war and advised workers to turn it into a civil war for the establishment of Communism

It was in 1930, before a House Investigating committee, that foster testified that Communists in this country owed first allegiance to the "Red Flag of the Proletariat," that religious ideals had no place in Communism, and that social end racial equality was their cardinal principle.

T WAS in 1930, when Foster was asked by Representative Hamilton rish whether the Communist Party desired to overthrow our Republican form of government by revolutionary methods, that Poster replied by reading from the program of the Communist International: "the violence of the bourgeoisie can only be suppressed by the stern violence of the proletariat."

It was in July, 1935, as a delegate to the Seventh Congress of the Comintern in Moscow that he set forth his blueprint for a radical working class party in the United States.

"The proposed party must be based on mass trade unions and Communists must persuade the trade unions to join a movement for the formation of a party," Foster wrote. "Under present conditions in the United States, the suggested party no doubt would assume a militant radical character, and, if the Communist Party were to act energetically, would exercise a strong and even leading influence therein."

IT WAS in September, 1939, one month after the signing of the Soviet-German non-aggression pact, that he told a House Investigating Committee he would not support the United States in a war at the side of Great Britain

It was in May, 1940, at the conven-tion of the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania in Olympia Arena. 711 S. Broad st., that Poster assailed President Roosevelt's call for 50,000 lanes as "a move to get the United States into the European war.

Foster's record in discussion goes further back than the present con-flict, however, for he has just doffed the harness of his second World War.

T WAS in the First World ar as a member of the International orkers of the orld, the "I.W.W." or "oblies," that Poster begin his career as a revolutionary and the present trail to the Communist Party leader-

He was arrested in 1923 on charge of criminal syndicalism, when Federal agents surprised him and 17 other Communists at a secret meeting in the sand dunes near Bridgman, Mich.

H E WAS jailed in 1930 on charges of provoking a riot at a Communist rally in New York's Union Square and accepted the Communist Presidential nomination in a prison cell in a speech that lasted one hour and eight minutes and bored his jailer stiff.

But Foster's bitterest setbacks were reserved for him by the Communist Party he so loyally serves.

By 1924, when he first ran for President on the Communist ticket, Foster had become head of the American Communist Party, but his position-was challenged by Charles

But it was Jay-Lovestone, now a union official and anti-Community who became the new Community who became the new Communist, who became the new Communist leader, not Foster.

. . . TN 1929, when Lovestone was writ-ten off by the international lead-ership of the Communist Party, Foster again was passed over and a virtually unknown party worker, Earl Browder, got the job. But the 20 lean years are over for LISTON M. OAK, managing edited-Liol the New Leader, official publication of the Social Democratic Federation, was first to put into; words the problem raised by the atom bomb.

"The shortening of the war will be only the beginning of the effects of the atomic bomb," he writes. "Nothing since the invention of gunpowder has changed military strategy so basically; nothing since the reteam engine has caused such an industrial revolution as will result; nothing since the French revolution has had such political repercussions as this will have. It is universally recognized as something revolution-

"In a very different sense than Marx meant, this stupendous discovery by scientists working under acquitatisse conomy means that 'capitalism is its own gravedigger.' Capitalism has not produced a revolutionary working class but a revolutionary invention.

"The atomic bomb completes the process begun by the machine gun, the tank, the airplane, which excludes the practical possibility of violent social revolution, of seizure of the State power by the proletariat. It makes the suppression of revolt too easy."

H ERMAN SINGER, editor of the Call, which is the official organ of Norman Thomas' Socialist Party, was right on his heels, however.

heels, nowever.
"The revelation that the atomic bomb has shifted the basis of industrial energy to atomic energy," he said, "has apparently shattered the vested interests in coal and electric utilities."

For if the people take control of the tremendous destructive power-that inheres in atomic energy and turn it toward constructive uses, the vast monopolies which now base themselves on suddenly outmoded electric power, will find themselves homeless.

"But if the monopolies have anything to say their will be no conversion of atomic energy to make it possible for the workers of the world to enjoy any of the benefits that would accrue from the widespread use of such_energy. Through employment of atomic energy, it might be possible in a few short years to wipe out poverty and to build a world which could fulfill the most Utopisablane also socialist dreamers."

THE Militant, publication of the I Socialist Workers Party, the Trotkyites, came through with a party manifesto on the subject of the atomic bomb.

"Capitalism in its death agony, withing in the tolls of morial crisis," said the manifesto, calmity, "has perfected an instrument of alignmeracing annihilation. This deadly destructive force, held in the grip of the criminal capitalist rulers, will be used to decimate mankind unless it is snatched in time from their nurderous grasp. The workers must awake, and wake quickly to the realisation that war with all its horrors is the product of the capitalist system."

THE Daily Worker, publication of the Communist Party, while no less sure of the result, has been less certain as to what it ought to say heart the atomic bomb.

After approaching the subject gingerly from several directions, including the British Labor Party victory, without much progress, the Worker finally settled for this decis-

"If it comes to the collective organization of the powers of hand and brain, there are other people who can equal and (for all we know) outstrip our own achievements. The alternatives, therefore, are compettion or co-operation in the use of this new weapon.

That is the basic question which has confronted the United Nations in every aspect of its work. We believe that this is the time to fight even more strongly for a fundamental co-operation of the great powers—especially our own country and the Soviet Union—for the sake of progress in all fields of human endayor for the sake of preventing another general war.

"And the responsibility to secure

"And the responsibility to secure this lies particularly on us Americans. Particularly after the development of atomic power."

N ONE of the organizations had any doubts, however, at least editorially, that the atomic bomb made their panaces just what the doctor ordered.

The New Leader said: "It means that the world must be socialized, that we must have a worldwide federation of co-operative Socialist commonwealths, if mankind and civflication are to survive."

The Call stated: "If we are to turn atomic energy to the use swither than the destruction of civilization, we must have an international system of production for use instead of profit, a worldwide federation of cooperative commonwealths."

THE Daily Worker put it: "The immediate answer remains: the vigilance of the people, the struggle to win new positions by united action from the forces of reactionary monopoly."

The Militant said: "Socialism—on perish! These are the alternatives Only the working class, which suffers the cruelties of capitalism in peace and war, can deal the death-blow to this foul system."

No one suggested that perhaps capital, industry, labor and governteent, working hand in hand to unlick the secret of atomic energy, had accomplished very much.

Mrs. Eleanor D Roosevelt was requested by William Karlin, New York chairman of the Sociel Democratic Federation. "to reconsider your attitude and cease lending your moral support and prestige to the 'left wing' faction of the American Labor Party."

Karlin made public an exchange of letters with Mrs. Roosevelt. He protested to Mrs. Roosevelt originally in a letter on May 25. On Mey 15, Eugene Connoll, Recretary of the New York County Committee of the American Labor A Party, also controlled by the left wing under the chairmenship of Representative Vito-Marcantonio, made public a letter from Mrs. Roosevel endorsing a statement of policy by this committee.

Replying to Karlin in a letter dated May 29, Mrs.

Roosevelt said:

"I read your letter and I thought my statement to which you refer was an American Labor Party statement and no one should object to it.

"I spoke to a group in my neighborhood in New York City, as members of the American Labor Party, on consumer problems. Not being a member I did not know the distinctions."

Karlin, his letter of yesterday said:

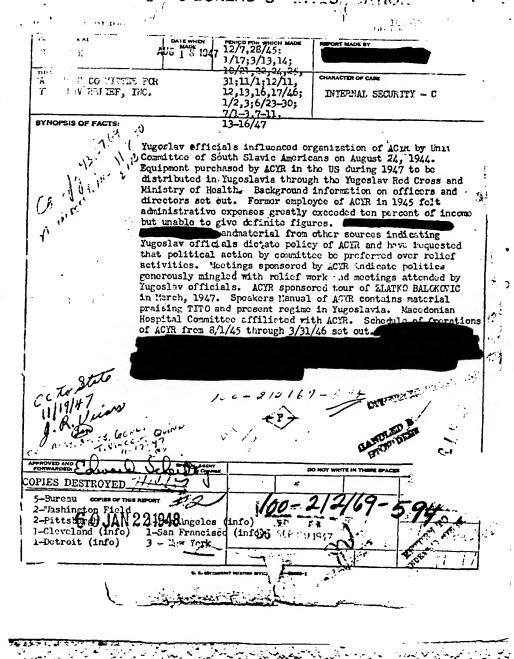

"When you say of the American Labor Party not being a member, I do not know the distinctions, we necessarily infer that you assert ignorance of one of the most fundamental, for reaching and highly publicated facts in the political life of New York, namely, the distinct: between the 'right-wing' group of the American Labor Party, which has consistently and unwaveringly since 1936 supported the domestic and fore! policies of President Roosevelt, and the 'left-wing' group of that Party which has actively promoted and indorsed the Communist Party line."

On the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Balckovic, Mrs. Eleaner Rossevelt accepted the Honorary Presidency of the Committee on the very eve of her detarture for London as the United States delegate to the United Nations Organization. In her last statement to the press in this country which she made in the rooms of the Committee in New York she pointed out the very tragic situation of the children of Yugoslavia.

In response to the letter of Mrs. Roosevelt, former Mayor of New York, La Guardia, and William Green, President of the American Federation of Labor, entered our Committee. that the recommendations of the Administrative Committee to award gold replicas of the Order of People's Service to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Mr. Ferdinand Smith, Mr. George Jessel and the Yugoslav Central Council of San Podro be accepted.

Mrs. EIEANCR ROCSEVELT was then presented with a plaque for an orphans home which was presented to her by the Yugeslav Ambassador, SAVA KCSANOVICH. In her speech she stated that the fault of a nation to respond in aiding the suffering was not the fault of the leaders, but was that of the peeple and urged these present to write their representatives and inform them what they wanted.

HARRY JUSTIZ then read a resolution which was adopted concerning the use of food as a political weapon against the Yugoslav government. JOHANNES STEEL was the next speaker and presented five plaques to KCSANGVICH for orphans homes bearing the names of "ENDELL TILLKIE, MARY MC LEOD BETHUNE, ALBERT EINSTEIN, the late Senator GEGGGE NORRIS and D'IGHT D. EISENHOUER.

LJUBO LEONTIC, Yugoslav Ambassador to England, was the next speaker and thanked the United States forher aid in establishing the United Nations and asked for peace and strength of the United Nations.

The last speaker of the evening was ALEX HEBLER, Deputy U.S. Fereign Minister and UN Delegate, who made no significant statement other than urging friendship between the two countries.

The writer was able to obtain copy of the resolution which was approved by the meeting and read by MARRY M. JUSTIZ. In this resolution was stated,

"We are deeply concerned because the State Department of our country appears to have formulated a relief policy which will bar heroic Yugoslavia from American help, appearently because its people have determined to make political and economic changes in their government." The resolution then continued, "There have been resolved that this meeting deplores the retreat of our State Department from a policy of international and non-political distribution of American food and relief. We call upon our Congress and State Department to reconsider that policy to the end that the standard for American assistance shall be the active human and material sacrifices of war devastated nations and the needs of their people rather than the former government which they may chose to establish."

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the current investigation being conducted by the New York field office concerning the above captioned individual.

This is to advise that on Saturday, March 31st, 1945 there appeared in the News Day", newspaper publication at Hempstead, Long Island, New York a photograph of OLGA KHLOFKOVA, accompanying a news article which stated that she, as a member of the staff of the Consulate of the U.S.S.R. in New York, would be featured as a peaker at the Second Annual Woman's Forum to be held in Cathedral House, Hempstead, on April 16, 1945. The article continued that Mrs. KHLOFKOVA, born in Moscow, a graduate of the Literary Institute in Moscow, and formerly employed in the publishing house in that community, and whose husband, as a member of a tank division is now on active duty at the iront with the Red Army, was active in the defense of Moscow during the seige, was a member of the A.R.P., and took part in other defense and war duties, prior to her coming to the United 144.

Another speaker at that meeting will be D. BLANCARIO, reportedly one of the foremost young Chinese lawyers now in this country, who formerly was associated with the J. PURDANCHIGHT LAW OFFICES in Baltimore, Maryland, and whose topic will be "If I had a Voice in the Peace Proceedings".

The news article concluded that Mrs. FRANKLIN D. ELCHEVILT, Lady SANSON, wife of Sir George Sanson, British Minister in Mashington, and fme. HENRY POINT, wife of the French Ambassador to the United States would also be introduced at the meeting.

THE NEW YORK CRIMINAL AND CIVIL COURTS BAR ASSOCIATION 1950 AWARD -- DECEMBER 22, 1950

On December 11, 1950, the Times Herald, on page 2, carried a story to the effect that the New York Criminal and Civil Courts Bar Association had announced on Pecember 10, the presentation of its 1950 award for "meritorious service in administering criminal justice," to be made to the FBI and accepted by Mr. Hoover on December 22.

ASAC Stein in New York has advised that it has been determined that Herman-Hoffman, 233 Broadway, New York, is President of this Association and has been President for the past 11 years. The organization has been in existence for the past 31 years and is said to be a reputable organization with no derogatory information known concerning it.

Hoffman has advised an Agent of the New York Office that at a recent meeting of the Association it was decided that something should be done to counteract the Lowenthal book and the membership decided that they preferred making some award to the Agents of the FRI through Mr. Hoover. The date of December 22 came up and it was more or less agreed that the presentation would be made on that date.

Hoffman stated that he had not released information to the press and was greatly incensed by the press having this information and was most embarrassed that the information had appeared in the press prior to the Association's contacting the Director. Mr. Hoffman has addressed a letter under date of December 11, 1950, to the Director advising him of the Association's decision and requesting that he accept the award on behalf of the Agents of the FBI.

On December 12, 1950, an item appeared in the New York Mirror identifying Hoffman as head of Adelphi Hospital in Brooklyn. This item further stated that the presentation would be made in the offices of Robert Daru, Chairman of the Board of the Association. The item further stated that Daru would make known at the meeting of December 22, at which time the presentation would be made, the findings of his group as a result of their investigation in wire tunning and other matters.

ASAC Stein has advised that in regard to Robert Daru that A he has been active in order to effect state legislation in New York to make the state laws conform with Federal laws on wir fair firm searches and seizures. ikeeURDED - 56 JAN LAR 1951

Stein has also determined that this award was made to the "typical New York City patrolman" of the New York City Police Department in 1948.

Mr. Stein has also determined that in regard to Herman Hoffman that on March 6, 1947, a national conference was held at the Faldorf-Astoria Hotel on the German problem. This conference supported the Forganthau plan. Invitations were sent out over the signature of Mrs. Franklin Dy Roosevelt and Edga Nowrer. Hoffman was one of forty-seven sponsors for this national conference and most of the members on the sponsoring committee were either Communists or Communist sympathizers, although there was a small minority of anti-Communists. In 1949, Hoffman was listed as a member of the Advisory Committee for the Society for Prevention of World War III, which organization has as its purpose a hard German peace and is headed by anti-German elements.

In regard to Robert Daru, Bureau files reflect that he was in Kansas City in 1948, at which time he represented himself as at one time being on a Senate Committee and preparing most of the crime bills passed by the Congress in 1934, extending the jurisdiction of the FBI. He was also purported to be an outstanding criminologist and allegedly instructed people of various communities how to prevent crime. Our files also indicate that he has served as counsel to the Federal Grand Jury Association, Southern District of New York and has edited "The Federal Juror." He addressed a letter to the Director on September 15, 1942, commending the Director on a statement the Director made emphasizing the importance of the public promptly forwarding information relating to un-American activities to the FBI. ASAC Stein in New York has advised that Daru was born in 1901 and graduated from Brooklyn Law School in 1924. He has been Chairman of the above-captioned Association since 1941, and at one time was counsel for a Senate Subcommittee on crime and racketeering. In September, 1937, he was Assistant District Attorney for New York County. He is presently a senior partner of the law firm, Daru, Visichi and Winter, New York City.

The New York files also reflect that a Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daru, 186 Pinehurst, New York City, were contacts in 1941, for the League of American Writers which has been cited by the Attorney General. This could have stemmed from his association with the First all Juror. There is no other information available concerning Daru. (62-69495)

Memo to Mr. Tolson

RECOMMENDATION:

It appears from the information set out hereinbefore that regardless of the merits of the award a most undesirable situation has occurred whereby publicity has been given to the award prior to the time that the Director has even been contacted. It appears that it would be unwise to refuse the award for the Special Agents in the Bureau but it is not believed that the Director himself should accept the award. It is recommended that upon the receipt of Kr. Hoffman's letter that he be advised that SAC Scheidt of the New York Office will accept the award on behalf of the Agents.

Reference is made to the telephone call of December 12, 1950, from Mr. Frank Holloman of the Bureau to ASAC C. W. Stein in regard to the above captioned organization and Mr. Holloman's request for additional information concerning it and its President, HERMAN HUFFMAN.

The "New York Daily Kirror" of December 12, 1950, in one of its regular feature columns entitled, "Over the River", by EDWARD ZELTNER, had the following item:

"As a direct rebuke to Max Lowenthal's recent book, attacking J. Edgar Hoover and the FBI, the N. Y. Criminal and Civil Courts Bar Ass'n. woted this year's award to the FBI for 'meritorious service in administering criminal justice'. President Herman Hoffman, who also heads the Adelphi Hosp. in B'klyn, has arranged for Director Hoover to accept the award at ceremonies in the offices of Robert Daru. Bd. chairman, Dec. 22. This is the second time in 35 years that this presentation goes to an organization instead of an individual. In '48 it was voted to the 'typical New York City patrolman'. At the presentation, Mr. Daru will make known the findings of the group's investigations into wiretapping and other matters."

The files of this Division were checked in regard to ROBERT DARU and the following information ascertained.

A newsclipping from the "New York Herald Tribune" of January 3, 1950, reflected in part that the New York County Criminal Courts Bar Association had announced on January 2, 1950, that it would make an intensive drive in the session of the State Legislature to obtain enactment of laws for correction of wiretapping and search and seizure abuses. According to this clipping, ROBERT DARU, Chairman of the Board of the Association, disclosed also that the organization is broadening its activities and is embarking on a general study and comprehensive investigation of the entire field of criminal and civil justice. In conjunction with this plan, he said that the organization at its annual meeting in April or May, 1950, would consider a proposal to change its name to the New York Criminal and Civil Courts Bar Association and would thereforth not confine its interest to New York County. The newsclipping went on to say that the inquiries of the Association into wiretapping and search and seizures, which had not yet been completed, would be combined with

In 1942 a HERMAN HOFFMAN was Chairman of the Board of the Non Sectarian Anti Nazi League. On June 30, 1943, a HERMAN HOFFMAN was listed as one of the honorary co-chairmen of the National Reception Committee sponsoring a reception for Soviet Jewish delegates Lt. Colonel ITZEK VEFFER and Professor SOLOHON VICHOELES, who visited the United States in July of 1943. The reception was held in the Polo Grounds.

HERMAN HOFFMAN in 1944 was listed as one of the Vice-Chairmen on the letterhead of the Jewish Council for Russian War Relief, Inc., which functioned as part of the Russian War Relief. The Council was active particularly in the INO, which is on the Attorney General's list. He acted as chairman for the first session of the Third Annual Conference of the Jewish Council for Russian War Relief. In the "Morning Freiheit" of November 16, 1945, it was reported that hundreds of prominent Americans gathered at the Russian Consulate, New York City, on November 8, 1945, on the 28th anniversary of the Russian Revolution. Among those was HERMAN (not otherwise identified).

From a confidential source in the Waldorf Astoria it was learned that at the meeting sponsored by the National Conference on the German Problem March 16, 1947, the name of HERMAN HOFFMAN, President of the Criminal and Civil Courts Bar Association, appeared on a letterhead as one of the sponsors. Newspaper accounts, particularly PDDLER'S column, had described this conference as being held to support the Morgenthau Flan for postwar treatment of Germany. He claimed in his column of November 1, 1950, that on the roster of the conference there were six known Communists and thirty fellow travelers. He rep red that JOHN JA ABT was one of the guests. There were some forty-eight sponsors of the conference, according to the New York files, a review of which list discloses that there were present a large representation of known Communists, a good representation of liberals and a minor representation of persons of unknown political viewpoints, as well as a few anti-Communists. The invitations to the conference went out over the signatures of Mrs. FRANKLIN D. NOOSEVELT and EDGAR MCWRER.

In 1949 HOFFLAN was a member of the Advising Committee for the Society for the Prevention of World War III, which is dominated and financed by ISIDOREALIPSCHUTZ who recently has been under attack by WESTBROOK PEGLER.

Assistant Director

BRITAIN DEVELOPS YOUTH PROCEAUS

By AVAN DAVIES

(Dr. Davies is Director of Education for the Borough of Willesdon. As secretary of the local Youth Committee, he undertook the task of initiating the movement in the borough. He is in this country at the invitation of the United States Government to consult with educators and administrators.)

For many years before the war, great interest had been shown in youth activities in Britain, but the Bational Touth Eyement, as such, dates from the beginning of the war. On October 3, 1939, the Board of Education and the Department of Education for Scotland assumed direct responsibility for the weifare of young cocole between the ages of 14 and 20. A Rational Youth Committee was set up to advise with the two agescies. This was sumplemented in June 1942 by a Touth Advisory Council, to advise on any question out to it by the President of the Board of Education, and to act as a common for conveying to him the views and problems of youth today, and to offer suggestiom on the action taken.

The Board of Education in Britain functions through the Local Education Authorities. There are 315 Education Authorities in Britain, all of which control elementary education in their areas, and 146 of which control higher education, both in their own areas and in the areas of those authorities for elementary education only within their borders. The Authorities for higher education were asked by the Board of Education to form fouth committees, with certain specific duties. Each Committee wasto consist of amo members of the present committee together with representatives of employers of labor, trade unions, teachers, the churchos, magistrates of the Juvenile Court, juvenile and probation offices, and other offices concerned with the administration of services connected with youth. This Committee generally mosts once a month, has its own subcommittees, and reports regularly to the Education Committee of the Education Authority. The Jouth Committee has its own treasurer and its own secretary, the latter very often the Chief Education Officer for the area.

The function of the Youth Committee are as follows:

- To stimulate local interest and public opinion about all quostions affecting the welfare of young people, and to ensure that as fer as postable they have every opportunity of becoming healthy, happy and useful citizens.
- (2) To ascertain the needs of young coople, to survey and record how for these needs are being met by existing organizations, to strongthen existing activities, to suggest the line upon which new work should be undertaken, and to assist in its development.

- (3) To bring all local organisations formed for the purpose of wolfare work amongst young meanle into touch with each other and with the local statutory authorities, so as to secure mutual help and avoid everlapping and waste of effort.
- (4) To obtain, collect and receive money and funts by may of contributions, subscriptions, general of legicies and to receive gifts of property of any description for or towards the objects of the Committee, or any of them.

Only those clubs or sections of clubs which enter for the needs of young people between the ages of 14 and 20 years are eligible for affiliation to the Youth Committee and clubs must be erroperly constituted, heving efficers and a committee of management, and the names and addresses with dates of birth of all members must be submitted with the form of analication. Once affiliated, the privileges are considerable.

Sime 75 per cent of the youth of Britain between 14 and 18 are working full time, the primary concern of the Youth Cormittees has been to foster the recreational activities of the youth of Great Britain. Since the Education Authorities in Britain are the city and county councils, the resources of these authorities, such as schools, playing fields, swimming baths, tennis courts, etc., are placed at the disposal of youth, either free or at a reduced rate. Incilities for cricket, football, net ball, hockey, swimming, week-ends in the country for young workers, keep fit classes, dranetics, musical activities, debates, etc., are provided by the Committee. The Local Education Authorities can make grants in aid out of public funds for both the provision and the maintenance of youth fad little, including the payment of lenders, instructors and wardens, and the provisioning, hiring and equipping of provises. There the grant is made by the Local Education Authority, 50 per cent is recoverable from the Board of Education. Should any youth organization not wish to become affiliated to the local Youth Committee, it can receive its grant direct from the Board of Education.

An interesting development recently has been the establichment of youth centers, where clubs can meet and carry on their activities. Sometimes many clubs meet in one center, whilst in others a special senter is provided for an individual club. Part, or sometimes the whole, of the cost of the minimum cis defrayed by the caube thomselves, though the Youth Committee frequently meets any deficit at the one of the year.

In December 1941, the Giveriment ordered the commutery registration of all youth of 16 and 17 years it also. On registration, they were cased to fill in certain particulars, including whether they were made of any outh organization, and to give the name of the organization. All the forms were contifred the Ministry of Labour Andragos to the accretary of the local youth committee, who verified from the organization the facts as stated on the forms. In the city with which the writer is connected, all the youth who were not makers of a youth erganization were invited to meet the members of a the local youth committee, who for this purpose divided up into eight panels which met on Saturday afternoons in eight different parts of the city, aread with full information concerning the local youth organizations. There was no compulsion placed on the youth to join any organization, but the members discurrend the matter kindly with them, found out what type of organization appealed to them, and if they expressed a desire to join any organization, they received a letter of introduction to the secretary. A careful record of interview was kept by a secretary with each panel, and the secretary of the organizations notified the Occamittee of new recruitment as a result of the letter of introduction. As a result of this procedure, at least 80 per cent of the youth in the city became members of a recognized and affiliated organization. The clubs affiliated to the local youth committee are of a very wide variety. Indeed, variety is encouraged. In the words of the Minister of Labour, "There is nothing to stop the Trade Unions, Cooperative Societies, or the Independent Labour Party from having youth movements if they went them. We want wariety. We do not mant all young people driven into one machine. We cannot allow the youth of this country to run wild.

The youth organizations can be briefly classified as follows:

- Purely local clubs and organisations, such an sports clubs, church clubs, alumni clubs, and industrial clubs (the latter formed within the industries tnomeelves), cooperative, trade union, political, etc., clubs.
- (2) Entional organizations, all of whom have local branches: Youth Service Corps, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, The Boys! Brigade, Y.K.C.A., Y.W.C.A., the Church Inde! Brigade, The Cirls! Friendly Society, the Girls! Guildry, the Girls! Life Brigade, the Junior Red Cross, St. John's Ambulance Brigade, etc.
- (3) Pro-corvice training and national service organizations: these are the Junior Training Corps (Army), Cadet United of the Home Guard, See Cadet Corps, and the Air Training Corps.

All the above organizations pay particular attention to the physical development and representation, facilities of their units. Symmatics are participated in, and all kinds of price are always, Thuy take full advantage of the facilities provided by the facility with remnittee. In the Air Training Corps alone, 250,000 toy, are surfuled, all of whom meet tegether on two evenings a week and removing, and atturday afternoon or a Sunday morning.

1. MEMBERSHIP.

A. THE DIRECTORATE:

It has already been stated that the I.S.A. was sponsored by the I.S.S. of the United States. On the morning of the opening day of the International Statent Assembly, at its "organizing session", the directing committees of the Assembly were set up. The first, and of primary importance, was the Presiding Committee, which consisted of the chairman of each of the national delegations. Mrs. Pratt, General Secretary of the I.S.S. in the United States became the chairman of this committee and hence the chief executive of the I.S.A. The Chairman of the Presiding Committee appointed the following committees: Nominating, Steering, Credentials and Drafting. The chairmen of the national delegations belonging to the Nominating Committee, were not members of the Steering Committee and vice versa. Mrs. Pratt was ex-officio member of all committees.

Over, above and apart from this official directorate was an unofficial group which exercised much of the actual control. This group consisted of Mrs. F. D. Roosovelt, Joe Lash, Molly Yard and Mrs. Pratt.

MRS. ROOSEVELT'S interest in youth groups and in "young people" generally, is well known. She was a strong supporter of Joe Lash and Molly Yard during the turbulent days of the American Youth Congress and the American Student Union, defending then against charges of communish levelled against them by various organizations, newspapers and the House Committee investigating Un-American Activities.

The members of the observing staff of Pax Romana are of the opinion that Mrs.

Reservelt has a sincere interest in youth. She seems to be a humanitarian, using her influence and uninent position to further what she considers great youth movements and good humanitarian pelicies. She herself emphasized her responsibility as First Lady and as a citizen, to do all in her power for the social and intellectual good of the people of this country and of the world. Undoubtedly, without her strong persistent patronage, youth movements and organizations, such as the I.S.A., would hardly have relahed their present significance. Student ergustrations are a torriously ephemeral. Mrs. Roosevelt, however, has given the national addition and youth organizations in the U.S. in recent years a considerable degree of stability, tentinuity and prominence. Her personal part in the I.S.A. was a reported. She was present throughout all its sessions. She provided the facilities of the White House for coremonies, to which the delegates were invited, and honored sens of them, such as the British and Russian delegates, with actual accommodations in the White House itself.

JCE LISH has been associated with student and youth novements for almost a decade. He was one of the founders and later executive secretary of the American Student Union and of the American Youth Congress. As pointed out earlier, he was widely accused of communistic leanings and sympatics, but was staumchly defended by Mrs. Roosevelt, who has repeatedly defended his integrity and loyalty to the principles of democracy. Judging from the personal observations of friends of both Mrs. Roosevelt and Mr. Lash, there is apparently an extraordinary bond of friendship between the two. Mrs. Roosevelt apparently is convinced of the sincerity and apostolic character of Mr. Lash's work among the youth. Mr. Alan Booth, the secretary of the British I.S.S., expressed the opinion that there is a possibility that Mr. Lash does not confide completely in Mrs. Roosevelt. Mr. Booth sees the possibility of some deception on the part of Joe Lash. However, there is no objective evidence that could be gathered during the Assembly or from confidential sources to support the contention that Joe Lash is at this time either in or affiliated with the Communist Party.

MOLLY YARD has long been associated with Joe Lash in student associations.

She shared with Joe the leadership in the American Student Union and the American Youth Congress, and the resulting accusations of communist sympathies. She abandone the A.S.U. and the American Youth Congress at the same time and for the same reasons advanced by Mr. Lash. She is on the staff of the United States committee of the

The following information is submitted in confirmation of that supplied by Mr. J. K. Mumford of this Russau to Mr. Frenk J. Kenney. As you will note, this report concerns a speaking engagement of Mrs. Possewell at the Fbenezer A. M. E. Church, Brush and Millis Streets, Detroit, Michigan, on January 26, 19hh.

In addition to the following annolicited report of a confidential informant, the informant has advised there is deep contern on the part of some of the committee members making arrangements for Err. Roosevelt's talk inabmuch as they feel a seriour situation right develop.

Mirr. hosmovelt will speak, according to the plans new completed, at the Woonzer A. B. E. Church. The hall will not hold all the people sho are expected to seek admission. It is altested in the heart of the district where serious riots occurred during the race trouble last year — the northwest corner of fillis and Brush firets.

*There will be large crowds milling around outside trying to get in. It some parson is jostled here by one of opposite race, a fight could start which might be dimastrous and undo all the good that the various intermedial committees have accomplished. By attention was called to this matter by two reports by parties of entirely different groups, to mit.

which has been active in promoting friendly relations between the two races. He meets with colored representative persons and committees continually. His revarks were somewhat as follows:

that I'rs. Hall Mossavelt attended the constitue meeting and orged that a larger hall be engaged; that the was much displeased and dissatisfied with the arrangements. She was informed that the only large auditorium available rould be the Chyonia but that it would take 13,000 to hold the meeting there. It was suggested that these at the meeting who would like to assist in raising the money so indicated and appeal was made mostly to the colored members the money so indicated was unsatisfactory. One can said if he were given the right to sell the said that the meeting programs he might raise the money. This did not meet with approval. The large limit decision was that the Ebenezer A. W. E. Church would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the meeting that the colored would be the place and the colored would be the colored would be the place and the colored would be the pla

"The second report was from an informant (who does not want to be quoted). She is an admirer of Mrs. hoosevelt and of the President. Her desire to promote harmony and understanding between the black and white races is sincere and she has done a great deal of work with this objective in mind and is doing so continually at present. She informed me that she hoped the location could be changed and that if it was not it would be better if the meeting was called off. She says the elits of the white people interested in negro welfare will not go into that district. The crowds will, to some extent, be composed of the irresponsible and the curious and the emotionally unstable type of colored persons. She believes that one fight here might be the spark which could start a riot. She told me that some members of the Inter-Pacial Committee were worried about the situation. Sho believes that the remedy is to hold the meeting at the Olympia, if possible, or some large auditorium out of that district. Her associates in the council decided that if this could not be accomplished, that it might help if more white people of the serious, sincere type could be urged to come out and come early so that there would be a representative group of both races, somewhat evenly distributed in numbers. They are, therefore, distributing blocks of tickets wherever they are assured that the tickets will be used and by people who would not resent being pushed around a lot or to having their toes stepped on.

"She further stated that the letroit police were not able to cope with the situation last time and it is not known whether their training or willingness has improved; that federal troops in and outside of the meeting place would impress the lawlessly inclined more than the police as was domenstrated during the riots; that if the moosevelt does speak in that location, extraordinary precentions to prevent trouble should be taken."

I was shocked at the news of the passing of the President this afternoon. There is so little that one can say or do at a time such as this. You have not only lost a good husband; the nation has lost one of its greatest Presidents, the world its foremost leader.

Over the years his personal interest and his friendship have been a sustaining force to me personally, and I find it most difficult to comprehend the full significance of his loss, which is irreparable.

If ever there is anything that I can do personally or officially I hope you will never hesitate to call upon me.

Delegation known as CITIZENS CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE, headed by C. D. Resiev Sw. GERALD L. K. SMITH, was in Washington, D. C., approximately June 27, 1953, to July 2, 1955, engaged in contacting U. S. Senators and Representatives and furnishing them with literature advocating the abolishing of the United Nations. This group apparently affiliated with or a part of the Christian Nationalist Crusade. As a meeting at Statler Hatel, Washington, D. C., on evening of 7/2/53, SMITH in speech advocated abolishing UM and halting immigration. SMITH stated Jewish organizations are trying to "alip in" 240,000 immigrants to U.S.; stated that we have all the Russian Jews in this country that we can handle now. Described former President TRUMAN as a "little drunk" and stated that TRUMAN fired MacARTHUR at night when TRUMAN had had too much brandy and was under the pressure of the Anti-Defanation League and others. SMITH praised Generals MccARTHUR and VAN FLET, and stated that the American people has a right to know by whose authority a general of the American army was ordered to lose a war and permit our sons to go to their deaths. In discussing the appointment of ANNA ROSENBERG to post of Assistant Secretary of Defense, SMITH stated that "we" had convinced the Senate that she was a Communist, but that a letter from DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER had advocated MRS. ROSENBERG'S appointment, and she was appointed. SMITH praised SINGMAN RHEE; denounced EINSTEIN and MRS. ELEANOR BEGOSEVELT; also denounced former President TRUMAN for getting us into the Korean War merely to prove he was against Communism. DR. WESLEY A. SMITT, Lancaster, California, also spoke at same meeting, stating that "we" testified before Senate Judiciary Subcommittee en Immigration on 7/2/53. SWIFT blamed the UN for putting U. S. in Korean War and for not allowing MacARTHUR to win it.

SMITH stated that the delegation received a very fine statement from Congressman BURDICK. He stated that BURDICK is the one man in Congress who has introduced a bill to take the United States out of the United Nations. SMITH said that BURDICK was presented with a membership list of Congress, and was asked to check off the names of those who were in agreement on his bill. SMITH said that the names of 105 men in the House of Representatives alone were checked off by BURDICK. He added that BURDICK said that when he first introduced the bill he was one of less than ten who favored it.

In discussing the views of Congressmen and Senators with regard to abolishing the United Nations SMITH stated that the men who are right will wote right. He pointed out, however, that there are others who will vote on a question in a certain way because they have been "bought" or are voting that way in order to return a favor to a colleague. In this connection SMITH mentioned that there is a certain percentage of men in Congress who have been very wise in judging the winning side, and he told his audience in effect, Suppose I tell you that the shrewdest opportunists in the Congress are for us in this campaign to abolish the UN. SMITH stated that a recent issue of "United Nations World" reflected that according to its polls 80 per cent of the public is now against UN. He added that the article stated that the leader of the campaign to abolish the United Nations, which campaign has made its influence felt, is the Christian Nationalist Crusade led by GERALD L. K. SMITH.

SMITH discussed MRS. ELEANOR COOSEVELT. He stated that in the past she had ridiculed MARTIN DIES. SMITH stated that MRS. ROOSEVELT has been on the wrong side of every public issue. He expressed the belief that MRS. ROOSEVELT has done more to encourage Communism in America than either EARL BROWDER or W. Z. FOSTER. He stated that not much good can be said about a woman who will abuse (THITTAKER) CHAMPERS and impugn his integrity after HISS has been sentenced to the penitentiary.

SMITH expressed the opinion that we have all the Russian Jews in this country that we can handle now. In connection with his discussion of Jews, he referred to the atomic energy spies. He also stated that he would like to see "Old Brother Einstein" run right out of the country. This statement was greeted with applause. SMITH said that one of the Senators had taken DR. SWIFT to the judiciary committee to testify. SMITH also stated that a member of the judiciary committee told him, SMITH, in Congress, that every Jewish organization in the U.S. is

SMITH also stated that General VAN FLEET made a sensational report stating that we could have won the war three times: that we were not allowed sunitions and were not allowed to win. 5_ITH stated that the American people deserve to know by whose authority a general of the American Army was ordered to lose a war and to permit our sons to go to death.

SMITH also discussed the appointment of ANNA ROSENBERO as Assistant Secretary of Defense. He stated that "we" had convinced the Senate that ANNA ROSENBERO was a Communist. He said that one Senator and said that he did not dare open his mouth in oposition to ANNA ROSENBERO because if he did he would be accured of anti-sentism. SMITH said that a letter from DWIGHT D. BISENHOWER was written recommending that ANNA ROSENBERG, who was referred to in the letter as a friend of LISENBOWER be appointed to the post of Assistant Secretary of Defense and that subsequently Irs. ROSENBERG was appointed to the post.

It was noted that the above mentioned meeting at the Statler Hotel appeared to be breaking up about 10:55 P. M. according to the informant.

T-2 advised that it was his understanding that Dr. WESLEY A. SWIFT and his wife left Washington, D.C. approximately July 4, 1953. T-2 stated that it was his understanding that CERALD L. K. SWITH, his wife, and his secretary left Washington, D.C. on July 6, 1953. It was the informant's belief that the SWITHs were traveling by automobile.

T-5, of known reliability, furnished four items of literature which he stated had been distributed to various Congressmen and Senators. One of these items is a four-page tract entitled "Abolish the United Nations". This pamphlet indicates that it is distributed by the Citizens Congressional Committee to Abolish the United Nations, which committee was formed at a conference in San Francisco, California February 5 and 6, 1953. It is further described in the pamphlet as an auxiliary of the Christian Tationalist Crusade, a national political committee. The address of the Christian Tationalist Crusade is shown as P.O. Box 27895, Los Angeles 27, California. The pamphlet sets forth twenty alleged reasons for abolishing the United Nations and continues as follows "to summarises they have so exploited we waves and the fools among our statesmen that in effect they have made a successful act of treason against the Constitution, the flag, the Arned Forces, our tradition, our religion, our racial integrity, our national and state sovereignty, our independence, and our Christian civilisation.

NATIONAL COMPUTED TO ABOLISH THE POLL TAX

Confidential Informant T-2 provided this office with a copy of the first issue of the publication "Dear Senator" which is a meekly publication of the National Committee To Abolish The Poll Tax. According to the statement in the publication, it has been established for no other purpose than to "present reasonably, honostly and without rancor arguments in support of pessage of H.R. 7, The Federal Anti-Poll Tax Bill". A statement appeared elsewhere in the publication that the NCAPT believed that a simple, legislative prohibition of the imposition of a poll tax as a prerequisite of voting is practicable, desirable and within the constitutional powers of the Federal Congress.

It was stated in the publication that sponsors of the MCAPT include a wide variety of religious, intellectual labor and political leaders such as William ROSE WHIT, HARRY MEDISON COSDICK, DR. LIRABI COLDITET!, DEAN LEON RESEN, WILLIAM ROSE, PAUL XELLOGG, PHILID THEYAY, DISHO G. FROMLEY OWNAIL, MRS. FRANCIAN DECOMPLEY Father JOHN A CYAN, MRS. M. E. STILLY, DR. CHANNING CORIAS, A. E. SHITNEY and DR. J. FINLEY CHISON.

An article appeared in the Washington Afro-American for July 28, 1945 in which it was stated that JENNINGS FIRTY, Chairman of the NCAPT, had that week sent letters to leaders of the Jonate Judiciary Committee urging immediate and "feasible action" on the bill for abolition of the poll tax. It was stated that members of the NCAPT stressed the need for writing members of the judiciary committee as well as the members of the sub-committee which was then studying the bill. It was also noted that officials of the NCAPT pointed out that the bill should reach the floor quickly thus lessening the danger of its being blocked by a fillibuster since the majority of the senators had become inked at the fillibustering senators who tied up the war agencies appropriation bill.

An article appeared in the Washington Tribune for July 28, 1945 which stated in substance that Senator CIAUDE TPPER of Florida was to lead the poll tax battle in the Senate. In the article, Mrs. KATHERING SHRYV R, Executive Secretary of the NCAPT, was quoted as saying "Thoughtful Senate

So, what the hell, I've got a million and one things for you and the others-----I got a German short wave broadcast last night on alleged American Navy losses where the guy said that while the Navy is keeping them from the public, Mrs. ROOSEVELT is telling detailed figures to her intimate friends.

RE: FOREIGN-INSPIRED AGITATION AMONG AMERICAN NEGROES IN NEW YORK FIELD DIVISION: INTERNAL SECURITY

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is the original and one copy of a report of Confidential Informant dated January 8, 1943, wherein he sets forth information as a result of his attending the meeting of a review of literature at the Harlem Public Library on January 8, 1943.

Informant reports that criticism was directed at Mrs. Roosevelt for her endorsement of an article written by a Negro, WARREN BROWN, in the current issue of the Saturday Review of Literature and the Reader's Digest, in which he attacked the Negro press for stirring up race hatred and unrest among the Negroes. Informant listed the number of persons present whom he knows to be Communist, and he believes that the meeting was Communistically influenced.

It is apparent that, although the Communists are loyal to the Allied cause in an effort to obtain a victory for Russia, they are quick to attack any person or group of persons criticizing the Negroes, an action which is in furtherance of their attempt to gain a large membership among the Negro population in the Communist Party.

Two copies of the above mentioned report are being retained in the files of the New York Field Division.

Very truly yours,

When I returned to Service Drayage Co on St. Jemes Street yesterday. I learned from my friend there that a lot of talking has been going on among the colored teamsters for the last few days that a big shot CP speakers is comming down here in a week or so and would address the colored people at a local hall, besides that he is to speak over radio station W.D.S.U. Monteleone Hotel, N.O.La. Later I learned that this speaker is none other then Robert Linor, assisting the general secretary of the CP. An article appeared in the April 30, 1945 issue of "Newsday", a daily newspaper published in Nassau County, New York, which was appearently written by the subject of this case. Inasmuch as subject admits in this article that he is the President of the COMMUNIST POLITICAL ASSOCIATION, Massau County, the item is being set out in its entirety as follows:

"COUNTY IRRITANT

From our Mail Box

"Says 'I.J.' a Phoney

"Hempstead—On behalf of the Communist Political Association of Massau County, of which I am president, I want to brand as a clumsy fraud the letter appearing in your column signed by '.J.,' describing himself as a Communist. This letter was obviously written by soneone with a fascist mentality for the purpose of creating mischief. It misrepresents us entirely, as our views are the exact opposite of those expressed by this phony.

"!I.J.! attacks the Middle class and businessmen. We, on the other hand, are advocates of unity between labor, middle class and big business. We are for collaboration between classes because that is the only way this country is going to solve the immese postwar problems ahead, in a progressive manner. Fights between classes, as 'I.J.' suggests, will only lead to national disruption and chaos.

"'I.J.' repeats the stale lie that kraincosevelt is a Communist member. This is an old fascist trick to discredit the Rossevelts. That stuff is pap for morons. It is hardly likely that people of intelligence will fall for the 'old red bogey' any longer.

"Finally, 'I.J.' says he is a Russian and in this country for 10 years. This is a too, too 'clever' way of creating the impression that all Communists are Russians and foreigners.

Was observed the same date in the office at the headquarters of the SCEF.

"The Southern Patriot," official organ of the SCEF, in the April, 1956, issue listed the editorial and executive offices of the SCEF as Room 404, 822 Perdido Street, New Orleans 12, Louisiana. The Office of Publication of "The Southern Patriot" is listed in this issue as 150 Tenth Avenue North, Nashville, Tennessee.

B. Scope of Activities

Confidential Informant T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available issues of "The Southern Patriot" for the months of December, 1955, and January, February, March and April of 1956, which reflect that the scope of the activities of the SCEF continues to be the publication of "The Southern Patriot."

The January, 1956, issue, Volume 14, No. 1, page 1, column 1, carried an article entitled "The SCEF: 1946-56, A Brief History, A Proud Record," which set forth a chronological summary of SCEF projects over the past ten years which is set forth as follows:

"Presponsible for misdeeds of a community, in particular, if they are supported by old traditions. Such is the case with discrimination. Every right-minded person will be grateful to you for having united to fight this evil that so greviously injures the dignity and repute of our country. Only by spreading education among all of our people can we approach the ideals of democracy.

"'Your fight is not easy, but in the end, you will succeed."

"In December, the SCEF addressed an appeal to Governor JOHN S. BATTLE of Virginia, asking elemency for the 'Martinsville Seven,' the seven Negro youths who were subsequently executed for raping a white woman. It was pointed out that in 13 Southers states during the period 1938-48. Sixty-eight per cent of those executed for murder were Negro; 92 per cent of those executed for rape were Negro. Yet, according to 1940 census figures, Negroes made up only 23.8 per cent of the population in those states. On that basis it was urged that 'judicial bias and undue severity toward the Negro defendant might reasonably be deduced."

"Braving the coldest weather ever recorded in South Carolina, 125 Southerners made a pilgrimage to the Charleston home of federal judge J. WATIES WARING. WARING's firm action had ended the white primary in South Carolina. He and his wife also spoke out against discrimination, despite tremendous pressure.

"SCEP President AUERRY WILLIAMS presented the jurist with a citation which said: 'It has been seen that many another, in your place, has found it possible, before obdurate prejudices and customs, to avoid the guidance of the noblest guarantees of our Constitution. Your own faithfulness in this field, despite environmental discouragement others have bowed to, has been exemplary and heartwarming.'

Favoring segregation of Negro patients were 479; integration was backed by 127. Seventy-six suggested the erection of separate hospitals for Negroes. The rest either did not answer the question or gave other answers.

"In a poll of all the 42,500 white doctors in 17 Southern states, 5,750 replies were received. Of these, 64 per cent backed segregation of patients; 17 per cent integration; 11 per cent the erection of separate hospitals for the races. However, 71 per cent approved admission of Negroes to medical societies. Sixty-three per cent gave outright sanction to admission of Negro doctors to hospital staffs, and 18 per cent voted a qualified approval.

"The Untouchables, a 36-page multi-color pamphlet designed and illustrated by the famous American artist BEN SHAHN, presented the SCEF case studies of hospital discrimination and exclusion. The booklet was written by the Southern journalist ALFRED MAUND and 25,000 copies were distributed. Mrs. F. D. ROOSEVELT devoted her column 'My Day' for Oct. 17 to a discussion of the work, declaring: 'It is such organisations as the SCEF that will really bring about the changes all of us hope for--not only in the South but throughout the country.'

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have been carrying on a one-woman campaign, trying to keep people from talking about minorities -- feeling so completely that in a Democracy it is the majority that governs, and that a lot of people--some innocently; others not so innocently, are stirring up so much trouble that it can only lead to chaos, and I believe actual war.

I realize that you have no control over politics,and of course a lot of it is that.

But, when our lives are being endangered; our country being ruined, is there no one who can quiet Mrs. Roosevelt, Fearly buck, Bessie Deatty on Madio Station W.O.R., the Merald-Tribune, to mention only a few?

If this is not in your "department," perhaps you will be good enough to tell me to whom I can turn?

I don't represent any organization. These are my personal views. Perhaps I have even under-estimated the conditions as they appear to me.

Sincerely.

Honored Sir: On January 17,1947 I wrote you something about the communists in America and the danger this country is in, and no doubt you are aware of the same.

I, like many other loyal American countrymen, have been greatly in favor of the drastic and quick action you and your agents, along with other high federal officials have taken against the communists in the United States. The headline in a recent daily home paper, "Moscow Radio Hits.U.S.Drive on Reds," is the true evidence that what is being done had a great effect on the high officials of the Soviet organization in Moscow.

The communist chiefs of red Russia are very much like a flock of human vultures hovering over the nations of the eastern hemisphere awaiting the hour when what is left of the economic structure of all nations will collapse, then they will swoop down on the starved, helpless, war-stricken people and force them under the iron hand of a communist dictator; worse yet, put all the people in the eastern world in slavery, like 14,000,000 Russians that are now confined in prisons, slaves behind barbed wire fences. This horrifying condition which existed in 1872. Today we are in great need of more men like that Salvetion Army officer,

But all the trouble is not over there, we have plenty here at home, and some dark days shead. The worst struggle is yet to come. The human vultures of the communist organization are hovering over the United States anxiously waiting for the final collarse of the American economic structure so they can swoop down for the kill.

It is my strong conviction from what I have learned about the communists here in America that when you told the House Committee on Un-American activities what you did about the communists overthrowing the United States government and fighting on the side of Russia if the United States should become engaged in war wigh Russia, that you were 100% correct.

Not so long ago I heard a communist who lives not far from this city buy, "O, why doesn't this country do more for Russia? For the communist is the only salvation for this country."

In 1930, while I was still living in the Pacific northwest, I heard the communists say they were planning to start fires in the lumbering industries in Tacoma and Seattle, and that they intended to overthrow our government.

And that plan is 11 fixed in their minds. rerican socialism is only a clock the r. I communists are wearing. In my opinion Lafollette of Fiscensin is a communist leader, and Henry Wallace, Harold Ickes, James and Elliott Roosevelt are quite likely some more, and a large per cent of the American people have suspected Mrs. Franklin Fronservelt as a communist leader.

No doubt the chiefs of the Seviet organization have made the communist spies and agents in this country an attractive offer, giving them the impression that when the communists take over they will all hold high Soviet positions in Moscow. Of course they would want to get out of America when that happens. It looks as if Elliott Roosevelt and Henry Wallace made arrangements with Josef Stalin when they were in Russia.

But let me say this, if any nation is to rule the western and eastern hemispheres, better it be the United States. For, by the way things generally turn out this country has to furnish material and soldiers and fight their wars for them, then bear all the expenses, and on top of it all, we pay them for the great privilege of letting us fight their wars for them. Isn't it so?

I, like many other Americans, am highly in favor of the move that President Truman has made toward supporting Greece and Turkey in stopping Russian aggression. The officials of the Soviet organization squealed like pigs caught in a fence over that, but let them squeal.

Now is the time to act, for if the real truth about capitalists and democracy can be pushed through the iron wall of Russia to the Russian member, that would prevent a war between Russia and the United States, is my opinion. I am not sure, and neither is anyone else, but something had to be done and very soon. It is going to be a dangerous and hard job, and just in case I can be of some helm, I would like to know the name of the special egent in Detroit.

I am of the opinion anything may happen from now on, and we must be looking and listening. I believe the industrial heads should but all the money needed behind whatever is fighting communism and fight until there is no such thing as a communist. Communists and capitalists will never get along in the same world any more than Gcd and the devil can live in the same chunch. One or the other must die. And while the become of this nation are still free to act and talk we'd better get going. We can and will win.

It may be that in some places I have said too much, and in other places, not enough. The truth is that I am one of the worst enemies that the communists have.

This nation still has the upper hand, and if we go at it with all our might we will win. And before it comes time for me to ascend the folder Stairs, I want to see this country and other nations free from communists.

Yours very truly,

USCENLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING

ATTENTION: MR

In accordance with telephonic instructions received from on November 4, 1944, the following information was obtained concerning the above named individual and the Southern Education Foundation, Inc. (also known as the Southern Educational and Trust Company).

SOUTHERN EDUCATION FOUNDATION, INC. 726 Jackson Place, N. W.

The files of the Washington Field Office contain no reference to this organization. The records of Dun and Bradstreet, 235 Washington Building contain a reference to this Foundation indicating that its president is ARTHUR D. WRIGHT, who is also associated with the Manufacturers Trust Company of New York City as Treasurer. These records reflect that the Foundation was incorporated under the laws of the state of New York in 1937 as an educational institution having no capital stock. It was formulated to take over the administration of certain funds created for the purpose of uplifting and educating the negro race in this country. The records indicate there are thirty-five members of the Board of Directors, all of whom are referred to as being prominent in educational and financial circumstances. President WRIGHT, on January 3, 19hh, stated that the funds of the Foundation were in the amount of over three million dollars. The Foundation is given a good rating by Dun and Bradstreet.

In a pamphlet published by the Southern Education Foundation, @ entitled "The A. B. C. of the S. E. F.", it is stated that the Foundation is composed of four funds, all of which are used to improve the educational and living conditions of the negro race. The four funds are briefly described as follows:

> The John F. Slater Fund, created on March 4, 1082 through a gift of one million dollars by Slater of Norwich, Connecticut - In leaving this fund, SLATER indicated the wish that it be used in "providing a Christian education for the lately emancipated freedmen and their successors."

The George Peabody Fund, created by an individual of . that name from the state of Massachusetts in the amount, as of June 30, 1943, of $310,728.42. This fund is also designated to be used for the improvement of the negro race with particular relation to rural schools in the South.

The Anna T. Jeanes Fund, contributed in the amount of one million dollars by this individual who resided in Philadelphia in 1907. The fund is also to be used for the benefit of small schools for negroes in the Southern States principally.

The Virginia Randolph Fund, contributed by an individual of this name and amounting, as of June, 1943, to $26,511.19. This contribution was the results of the joint contributions of 450 Jeanes Teachers and was raised for the purpose of expanding the use of Jeanes Teachers in the Southern States.

This pamphlet further reflects that the Southern Education Foundation, Inc. was incorporated under the laws of the state of New York on June 1C, 1937 for the purpose of administering the above described funds. The objectives of the Foundation are stated to be the cooperation with public and private school officials and others in improving educational and living conditions with special regard for the needs of the negro race. The Treasurer of the Corporation is the Manufacturers Trust Company of New York City. There is an Investment Committee of four members composed of the President of the Foundation, a second Vice-President - President of the Chase National Bank, a Vice-President of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and a partner in Spencer-Trask and Company, Investment Bankers.

The pamphlet describes the activities of the Foundation and they appear to consist of improving educational conditions of negroes in the Southern States. This is accomplished by having the Jeanes Teachers teaching in the schools, through the medium of radio programs, publications, college and school grants and minister institutes for negroes.

Among the numerous prominent members of the Foundation is Mrs. FIGARELLIN D. ROOSEVELT.
